

PINK OUT GOES WILD

JUNIOR ERIN ELLINGER APOLOGIZED AS SHE TURNED PEOPLE DOWN BECAUSE SHE RAN OUT OF PINK T-SHIRTS TO SELL. THE T-SHIRTS WERE SOLD THE WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 13 TO SUPPORT MRS. MCLELLEN, A 7TH GRADE ENGLISH TEACHER, WHO PASSED AWAY FROM A LONG CANCER BATTLE.

LAST YEAR, ERIN ELLINGER ORGANIZED A 3 ON 3 VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT TO HONOR MRS. MCLELLEN, AND SHE CONTINUED THE TRADITION FOR THE VOLLEYBALL GAME ON SEPT 16. THE SHIRTS WERE PINK TO SUPPORT CANCER AWARENESS AND RESEARCH.

“MRS. MCLELLEN WAS A TEACHER YOU COULD ALWAYS TALK TO ABOUT ANYTHING AND FOR THAT SHE WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED,” SAID ERIN ELLINGER.

“THE PURPOSE OF THE PINK OUT WAS TO RECOGNIZE AND PROMOTE CANCER SO PEOPLE CAN REMEMBER WHO MRS. MCLELLEN WAS,” SAID PRINCIPAL TONY KOSKI.

THE MEMORY OF MRS. MCLELLEN WILL REMAIN FOR A LONG TIME DUE TO THE PINK OUT VOLLEYBALL GAME. THE

SUPPORT SHOWN THROUGH THE PURCHASE OF THE T-SHIRTS
IS GREATLY APPRECIATED AND GOES TO A GOOD CAUSE.
